

DUMMY COMPANY – LEAVE POLICY

Sample / Fictional HR Policy Document — For Reference Only

1. Purpose

This policy defines the general leave rules and procedures for employees of Dummy Company. It is a fictional sample and does not represent the actual policy of any real organization.

2. Leave Entitlement

Leave Type	Annual Entitlement	General Purpose
Casual Leave (CL)	12 days	Personal / short-term requirements
Sick Leave (SL)	12 days	Illness or medical needs
Earned / Privilege Leave (EL)	15 days	Planned vacation or extended leave
Public Holidays	As notified	Company / government holidays

3. Leave Application Procedure

- Employees should submit planned leave through the company's leave-management system or HR portal.
- Planned leave should normally be requested at least 2 working days in advance.
- Emergency or sick leave should be communicated to the reporting manager as soon as reasonably possible.
- Leave approval is subject to business requirements and manager approval.

4. Sick Leave

Employees may use sick leave when they are unable to work due to illness. For extended absence, the company may request appropriate supporting documentation in accordance with applicable rules.

5. Leave Without Pay (LWP)

Leave taken beyond the available paid-leave balance may be treated as Leave Without Pay, subject to prior approval and applicable company rules.

6. Leave During Notice Period

Leave during the notice period may require additional approval and may be subject to the terms of the employee's employment agreement.

7. Carry Forward and Encashment

Unused leave may be carried forward or encashed only where permitted by the company's internal rules and applicable law. The exact limits should be confirmed with HR.

8. Important Note

This is a dummy/sample document created for learning, testing, interview preparation, or demonstration purposes. It must not be presented as an authentic company policy or used to make employment-related claims.
